REMEMBER OUR LADY OF MERCY CHURCH AND SCHOOL IN YOUR LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

“Since happiness is nothing else but the enjoyment of the Supreme Good, and the Supreme Good is above us, no one can be happy who does not rise above himself.”

ST. BONAVENTURE (1221-1274)

THE BELLS OF EASTER

One of the most glorious moments in the Church's liturgical year is the proclamation of the Easter Gloria at the Easter Vigil Mass. Once the Old Testament readings conclude, the dark interior of the church is illuminated, the organ sounds forth, and the voices of God's people joyfully proclaim the glory of the Lord. Traditionally, the Easter Gloria is a time when bells are rung. The bells of Mercy will peal from the tower, and our sanctuary bells will ring. All parishioners attending the Easter Vigil are invited to bring bells to take part in the celebration. When the church bells ring and the Gloria begins, make a joyful noise unto the Lord by ringing your bell.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Benjamin (329 - 424)

FEAST DAY: March 31

The Christians in Persia had enjoyed twelve years of peace during the reign of Isdegerd, son of Sapor III, when in 420 it was disturbed by the indiscreet zeal of Abdas, a Christian Bishop who burned the Temple of Fire, the great sanctuary of the Persians. King Isdegerd threatened to destroy all the churches of the Christians unless the Bishop would rebuild it.

As Abdas refused to comply, the threat was executed; the churches were demolished, Abdas himself was put to death, and a general persecution began which lasted forty years. Isdegerd died in 421, but his son and successor, Varanes, carried on the persecution with great fury. The Christians were submitted to the most cruel tortures.

Among those who suffered was St. Benjamin, a Deacon, who had been imprisoned a year for his Faith. At the end of this period, an ambassador of the Emperor of Constantinople obtained his release on condition that he would never speak to any of the courtiers about religion.

St. Benjamin, however, declared it was his duty to preach Christ and that he could not be silent. Although he had been liberated on the agreement made with the ambassador and the Persian authorities, he would not acquiesce in it, and neglected no opportunity of preaching. He was again apprehended and brought before the king. The tyrant ordered that reeds should be thrust in between his nails and his flesh and into all the tenderest parts of his body and then withdrawn. After this torture had been repeated several times, a knotted stake was inserted into his bowels to rend and tear him. The martyr expired in the most terrible agony around the year 424.
